And for our ein these Matters we had our own Experience, outom House Books, and the repeated Sense of Legislative Power of the Nation at a right Season, at a Time of Recollection and Fore-thought. No whereas Great Britain, before she was pos-def these Colonies in the West Indies, was wont to hale, for her own Use, every Sort of their Pro-tions from Foreigners (at much higher Prices than have been fince fold for) to her great Difadage; and now these Colonies have not only sup have made her a Magazine or Staple for them, reby our Trade, Shipping, Riches and Publick tone have been prodigiously increased.

HE Trade wherewith these Colonies have enthis Kingdom is immense; and there is not a belonging to the Kingdom of Spain or the glom of Portugal, that has afforded, either of the like Emoluments and Advantages, which Sugar Colonies have brought to Great Britain. BE Value of the yearly Transactions in the rade may be computed, as he annual Produce of our Sugar 1,950,000 heir annual Expence and Charges Balance centering in England as 1,740,000 ove-mentioned 210,000

FIVE Millions and Two hundred and Twenty Possibility, in our humble Opinion, of its ever being housand Pounds. A vast Sum! and it is not easy regained by us, tho at the Expence of ever so much Thousand Pounds. A vall Sum! and it is not easy to calculate how many Ships, Sailors, Merchants, Factors, Tradefmen, Manufacturers and People of all Professions and Denominations are concerned in and do sublist by these great and diffusive Transactions. Some have computed, that the annual Trading Stock of Shipping from Britain, Ireland, and North America, imployed to Africa, Madeira and the West Indies, hath amounted to 70,000 Tons; and that every Family in the West Indies, at an Average, gives Employment to Five Seamen, and to many more Artificers, Manufacturers, Tradefmen, &c. and that every White Person there inhabiting, brings in 10 l. per Head per Annum clear to the Benefit of the Navigation, Revenue and national Stock of Great Britain: Whereas it is computed, that every Person in this Kingdom, one with another in the Gross, does not yield above a Twentieth Part of that Sum, Profit to the Nation, besides their own Maintenance.

Ir may therefore, we think, be very fairly con-cluded, that the Brail Sugar Colonies and Trade, are exceedingly beneficial to this Nation, and pro-fitable to the Crown, and that their Preservation and Encouragement, is of the highest Importance and Concernment to us. I. BECAUSE of the great Value and Extent of the Circle of Trade which these Colonies create, and are the fole Source and Caufe of. 2. BECAUSE they increase our Navigation, not only in so large, but also in so convenient and useful a Manner, the Voyage being neither too near Home, nor too tar off, every Ship performing it once or twice a Year; so that all the Sailors belonging to this Trade are constantly maintained by it, and yet in a Readiness for the Manning our Ships of War almost on any Occasion.

3. BECAUSE they formerly did, and might at present, take off many useless and necessitious People from Britain and Ireland; — and in these Plantations such Persons have been, and still might be, made of five Times more Value to their Mother Country, than they can possibly be to it, by any fuitable Employment that is to be found for them at

4. BECAUSE they supply us with all Sorts of their Productions so much cheaper than formerly, when fuch Commodities were purchased from Foreigners.

. BECAUSE the Inhabitants of thefe Colonies, do fland in Need of all Utenfils and Necessaries for carrying on their Sugar Works, &c. and of most Things that they eat, drink, or wear; — with which Things Great Britain doth or might supply

6. BECAUSE the Productions of these Colonies are peculiar to them, in so far, as they are not to be had from any other of the British Dominions.

7. BECAUSE these Colonies never did, nor ever can in any Manner lessen or interfere with the Produce, Manufactures, Trade or Navigation of Great Britain; whereas it is very well known, that some other of her Colonies do, or may, injure her in some or all these Matters.

8. BECAUSE they give Being and Support to an infinite Number of Mechanicks, Manufacturers, Tradesmen, Ship-builders, Supra Cargoes, Factors, Merchants, &c.

9. BECAUSE they afford a plentiful Provision for Governors and other Officers, and to Lawyers, Divines, Physicians, &c.

10. BECAUSE they greatly Augment the publick Revenue.

11. BECAUSE all their Superlucration, or Gain, over and above their Expences, ever hath, and ever must center in Great Britain. 12. BECAUSE the Re exportation of their Productions, hath helped us to make good our Balance in Trade with other Countries.

12. BECAUSE of the real Value of their Buildings, Utenfils, Stock of Negroes, Cattle, &c. worth a 600,000 great many Millions Stirling.

14. Bacausa, if we do not uphold our Sugar
Trade and Plantations, this Golden Prize will fall into the Scale of our powerful and most formidable Neighbour, which will turn the Balance of Trade, Total L. 5,220,000 Navigation and Power in her Favour, beyond the every Beauty which could edern her Sex; a A Terrest for I. Coor an, at the books

Blood and Treasure.

15. AND should the White Inhabitants of these Colonies desert them, nothing is more obvious, than that the French and Spantards will, iffo Fatto, be Masters of all the West Indies, and the Trade thereof. - A faral, if nor a finishing Stroke, to the Liberties of Europe, and the Navigation and Commerces of the World!

We remain, as always,

The SUGAR PLANTERS.

LONDON

Yesterday arrived a Mail from Flanders and another from France.

Letters from Leghorn by the Way of Parls say, that on the first Day of this Month, O. S. a French Vessel arrived in that Harbour from the Isle of Corfica with the Lord Theodore and his Prime Minister Casta, and that after Landing they fet out Post, but whither was not faid, tho 'twas supposed they had taken the Road of Bologna. Yet Letters of the 2d Inst. directly from Leghorn, making no mention of this Elopement of the Baron, it is not absolutely to be depended on. All the News they bring relating to Corfica is, that as the Rebels were marching to befiege Campo-Moro, they were attack'd on the Road by a Detachment from the Genoese Garison at Ajaccio, and obliged to return with the Loss of some

Men and their Baggage.

These Letters add, that Father Cancilotti, a Jesuit, having finished a Mission which he had been making for Eight Days together to St. James's, about a Mile off Leghorn, above 30,000 People went thither upon the last Day from that City and Neighbourhood, to receive the Pontifical Benediction, fo that all the Plain was covered.

They write from Hanover, that M. de Miltitz, Envoy from the Duke of Saxe Weissenfels, has defired the Favour of his Britannick Majetty to be Godfather to the young Prince, of whom the Dutchess was lately delivered. He had an Audience of the King for this Purpose, who gave him a very gracious Reception, and 'tis said, granted his Request.

The Letters from Madrid, which mention the Death of Don Joseph Patinho, add the following Character of him. He was a Batchelor, and the eldest of the Family of Castelar, which had always a considerable Rank in Spain: Tho he was about 77 Years of Age, yet such were his Abilities, that besides his being a Privy Counsellor, President of the Council of Finances and the Tribunals thereon depending, and Superintendant General of the Crown Revenues, he alone discharged the various ministerial Offices of Secretary of the foreign Affairs, Secretary of War, Secretary of the Navy, Secretary of the Indies and of the Finances, &c. with a Zeal, Capacity and Success, which there are few Examples. He shew'd a consummate Prudence at the Head of Affairs in the most delicate Negociations. He esta-blished an admirable Regulation in the Finances, which was the more remarkable, confidering the critical Conjunctures of the Wars of Africa and Italy; and he provided for the prodigious Expences of Armaments, Convoys, and the Pay of the Forces, without purting the King under a Necessity of laying the least extraordinary Impost on his Subjects; and tho' he had Five Offices to manage of fuch Profit, he shewed a perfect Difinterestedness by applying the Revenues annexed to his Dignities, for the Ease of the People, and the Advantage of the Government.

On Saturday November 12, died at the Palace in Exeter, the Lady of Lucy Weston, Est; Cornet in the Honourable Lieutenant General Wade's Regiment of Horse, to the inexpressible Grief of that Family, and of all who had been honour'd with her Acquaintance.

Orders are fent to Jamaica for the Return of Three of the Six Independent Companies of Foot fent thither sometime since to affift in suppressing the rebellious Negroes, they having compleated that delireable Work.

Yesterday their Royal Highnesses the Prince and Princess of Wales returned from St. James's to Last Saturday his Grace the Duke of Richmond fet out for his Seat at Goodwood in Suffex. Yesterday her Grace the Dutchess of Richmond went into Waiting at Kensington, as first Lady of her Majesty's Bed-chamber.

On Friday Night died at his House at Hampton, in the County of Middlesex. George Freelove, Esq; a young Gentleman lately come of Age, and to a plentiful Fortune.

On Saturday laft Mary Ward and Abraham Poland were committed to Newgate by Col. De Veil; the faid Ward for feloniously and privately picking the Pocket of George Parrock of a Silver Watch and Chain, and the laid Poland for feloniously receiving the same, knowing it to be stolen, and pawning of it to an eminent Pawnbroker in St. James's Parish, who is bound over to give Evidence at the Old Baily.

The same Gentleman did also commit the same Day Ann Evans to Tothill-fields Bridewell, for retailing Spirituous Liquors in the Strand, in less Quantity than two Gallons, and refusing to pay the Penalty of Ten Pounds prescribed by Act of Parliament, she is put to hard Labour for two Months, or used she pays the said Penalty.

The fame Day Col. De Veil also convicted Mrs. Elizabeth Gobell, a noted Pawnkroker in New Beltonstreer, in Short's Gardens, of having knowingly received of Henry Cox, a private Centinel in his Ma-jefty's first Regiment of Foot Guards, in the Hon. Col. Price's Company, fome of his Majefty's Regi-mental Furniture, for which the faid Cox received 300 Lashes by Order of a Court Martial, and being convicted of the faid Fact, a Warrant of Diffreis was granted, and the faid Mrs. Gobell did thereupon ay the Penalty of Five Pounds inflicted by Act of Parliament.

The same Day William Makens, a Drayman, who willfully, maliciously, and purposely, sitting upon his Dray, drove the same upon Sir Joseph Aylosse (who was in a Four Wheel'd Chaise near St. Giles's Pound, standing still) and overfet him with another Gentleman that was with him, in a great Quantity of Mire, to the great Hazard of his Life, or of being smothered in the said Dirr, was bound over to the next Sessions of Peace at Hicks's Hall, to answer that Assault and Breach of the Peace, and also paid the Ten Shillings for riding upon his Dray (having nobody to guide his Horses) contrary to the Statute in that Case made and provided.

Last Saturday Joseph Baddy stood in the Pillory at the End of Fetter-lane in Fleet-street, for Perjury, being convicted the Sessions before last at the Old Baily, for that horrid Crime in falfely swearing before the Deputy Filazer of Surry, that John Knowles was indebted to him 9001. Thomas Cant 3001. Joseph Truís 500 l. and Robert Walker 700 l. in all to the Amount of 2400 l. when neither of the faid Persons owed him a Shilling: He was pelted in a very severe Manner with all manner of Filth, &c. and afterwards carried back to Newgate to fuffer Imprisonment pursuant to his Sentence.
